Hi,

We're Andes Tech Solutions, a software company based in Medellín. We're looking for a catering partner to provide lunch for our team — about 220 employees — once a week, and we'd like to set this up as an ongoing arrangement for the next 12 months.

We're after a reliable weekly service with a standard, varied menu (nothing custom — your regular offering is perfect). Could you put together a proposal with pricing? We'd need quotes in COP and USD since we report in both.

Happy to jump on a call. What would this look like?

Thanks, Ana Office Manager, Andes Tech Solutions
